On September 24, 1926, the United States attorney for the Northern District of California, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 1,219 cases of canned salmon, remaining in the original unbroken packages at San Francisco, Calif., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Red Salmon Canning Co., from Naknek, Alaska, arriving at San Francisco, Calif., on or about August 20, 1926, and that it had been transported in interstate commerce from the Territory of Alaska into the State of California, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: "Eagle Brand Fresh Salmon Produce Of U. S. A. C. & E. Morton, Ltd. London, England."
